

Dylan Borjesson Leads a Balanced Attack to Beat Casa Grande

The Vacaville Bulldogs didn't have too much breathing room in their game against the Casa Grande Gauchos on Friday, but they still walked away with a 20-14 victory.

Vacaville's win was the result of several impressive offensive performances. One of the most notable came from Dylan Borjesson, who rushed for 86 yards and one TD. Borjesson also deserves a shoutout for his performance on D, making four total tackles and defending one pass. Vacaville also got a significant boost from Roman Conner-Owens, who ran away from the competition to the tune of 97 yards.

Vacaville's first win this season bumped their record up to 1-2. As for Casa Grande, their defeat dropped their record down to 0-2.
