

Vaca's JV team topples Wood

November 10, 2007 - Behind a four-touchdown night from freshman Malik Earl, Vacaville's junior varsity football team cruised past Will C. Wood 48-6.

Earl scored the first two touchdowns of the night to get the Bulldogs out to a 19-0 lead at the half.

The Wildcats couldn't manage much offense and hurt themselves with costly penalties. Vacaville led 48-0 before Wood's James Lopez put the final points on the board. Lopez set up his 14-yard run with a 40-yard run on the previous play.

Vaca's Earl scored on runs of 15, 65, 15 and 16 yards.

Jimmy Hines, Blakelyn Birks and Derek Jenkins also scored for the Bulldogs, all rushing TDs.

Vacaville finished the season 7-3, 4-1 in the MEL. Wood was 2-8, 2-3 in MEL
