Daniel and David Mewborn put the Vacaville High School freshman football team up big at halftime as the Bulldogs rolled to a 53-7 win at Will C. Wood on Thursday.

Daniel Mewborn had touchdown runs of 60, 20 and 62 yards. David Mewborn caught a 40-yard touchdown pass from Justin Milander and later ran 54 yards for a score.

Dylan Lentini's 66-yard interception return for a score gave Vacaville a 46-0 lead at the break. Clayton Caserza added five 2-point conversion runs.

Justin Medina scored the Bulldogs lone touchdown in the second half on a 5-yard run. Daniel Agbigay and Ashton Jacobs led the Vacaville defense.

Vacaville improved to 6-0 overall.

Wood scored in the fourth quarter when Aaron Herbert completed a 35-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Bailey. The Wildcats fell to 0-5.
